Giorgetti APSARA COLLECTION

Designed by Designed by Ludovica+Roberto Palomba for Giorgetti, the Apsara Collection comprises a modular seating system available in two depths, with the base in protected aluminium, powder painted in carob colour, made up of afrormosia wooden slats, alternated with others in aluminium. The frame of armrests and backrests is in marine plywood and powder painted steel. The seat, armrest and backrest cushions are in expanded polyurethane and fibre with a waterproof cover. While the design ticks every box in terms of utility and durability, what we love most is how deliciously sink-in it feels. We can imagine endless evenings lounging by the pool in this.
