The chill of the holiday season calls for cozy outdoor spaces that are perfect for evening gatherings or quiet relaxation. According to Brijesh Bansal, Founder, Stone Art, a fireplace is the ultimate focal point for any outdoor area. “Whether it’s a traditional wood-burning or a modern gas fireplace, it creates warmth and a welcoming atmosphere for gatherings,” he shares.

Complement this centerpiece with seasonal vases filled with vibrant autumnal blooms or serene winter whites to introduce freshness and color. For an exotic touch, Moroccan lamps offer ambient lighting while casting enchanting shadows, ideal for evening relaxation. Finish the look with chaises draped in cozy throws and cushions to encourage comfort and unwind in style.

CEO of Innovative Design Studio, emphasizes the artistic value of lighting, stating, “More than mere function, lighting is art—shaping spaces, evoking emotions, and transforming homes into sanctuaries of warmth.”

From bold pendant lights to portable lamps that transition seamlessly between indoor and outdoor spaces, lighting can add depth and intimacy. Wall sconces lend nostalgic charm, while decorative table lamps craft soft, elegant glows. “Thoughtful lighting design sculpts experiences, highlighting textures and creating vignettes that captivate,” Jain adds. Let light become the brushstroke that turns your home into a masterpiece of warmth and sophistication this season.

Set the Mood Indoors

For indoor spaces, creating a festive sanctuary begins with the right elements. Shuchita Sancheti Garg, Founder of vVyom By Shuchita, recommends using scented candles to infuse your home with cozy fragrances like cinnamon, pine, or vanilla. Their soft glow instantly elevates

In the bedroom, add seasonal charm with warm-toned bedsheets and cushions in deep reds, golds, or earthy hues for a luxurious, restful touch. When it comes to dining, Garg suggests festive table runners and napkins in warm floral prints to set the stage for memorable holiday meals. "These elements add a festive flair, creating an inviting atmosphere for family and friends," she notes.

Elevate Festive Gatherings

Hosting gatherings during the holidays is all about making guests feel special. Dhara Shroff, Head of Retail at Opolin, suggests starting with glowing candles to create an elegant ambiance. Layer this with decorative vases and plush cushions to add texture and sophistication to your
